E-Source Miller Announces New Line: G&A Commercial Seating

IRVING, TX – February 22, 2023 – E-Source Miller announces the new line, G&A Seating.

G&A Seating specialize in commercial seating products, tabletops, and table bases for the hospitality industry. The line has a reputation built on skilled workmanship, reliability, and unparalleled customer service. With a wide range of products, they can meet any range of customer-specific seating needs. Emphasis within G&A Commercial Seating is placed on qualities such as affordability and innovation, meeting customers where they are at to ensure a seamless, convenient seating experience.

Jeff Griffiths, President of E-Source Miller spoke on the value this line brings to the company, “G&A Seating is an amazing addition to our portfolio, they source materials from a network of European partners, and they manufacture in the USA. The combination of domestic craftsmanship and the finest materials allow G&A to shine in both quality and value. The addition of G&A completes our furniture offering and establishes ESM as the premier source of restaurant furniture in Texas and Oklahoma.”
